"You'll need to bring one of the recruits," Gatsby says. "Your first order of business should be to add them all to the roster. The second order of business will need to be altering the registration for the Society itself, to name an acting head of the Society in Lord Silverdrake's absence. For that, you will need one additional member's signature to certify that Lord Silverdrake is, in fact, missing."

"I suppose that's a reasonable precaution to prevent a coup," you note drily.

"You'll also need to decide who is going to be listed as the official leader of the Society," Gatsby says.

- Gatsby; he knows the Society better than anyone.
- Me; I need to step up and protect the team.
- Me; I'm the most powerful and the most experienced.
- Lord Silverdrake should stay the leader of record; his name commands respect, and will encourage morale.
- No leader. We work as a team of equals.
