You play as a detective summoned to a village by an urgent letter from a Mrs. Fisher. Apparently, her husband was given a strange pendant by a mysterious dwarf named S.G. (While I realize these games are intended to stand on their own, one would think that a detective taking these cases in sequence would know how dangerous that dwarf is.) All he wanted for the pendant was a mirror. Mr. Fisher took the amulet, but refused to part with the mirror.

And now the recent dead are walking the streets, and Mr. Fisher has\u2026 changed. And as the local undertaker, that could be very bad.

The plot is interesting, the HO scenes fun, and the minigames engaging. Get the bundle for best results. All four games are decent.. As a fan of HOGs and point and clicks, I would highly recommend to give this entire Haunted Legends series a pass. They are clunky and the puzzle solving is kind of infuriating. You think you've solved the puzzle to open a door for example, but, nope, that was just the first part. Now you have to figure out how to open the second part of the lock. With items not yet in your inventory. And a LOT of running around, like more than usual. I also found this particular game (the undertaker) crashed a lot, and each time due to some run time errors.
